

Exploration Support

From the exploration stage to mine operation, Nuna has provided expertise to the majority of resource companies operating in Nunavut and the Northwest Territories.

We not only have the specialized knowledge of Canada's harsh, remote northern conditions and terrain that's required to provide mineral exploration site support, we also have resources to mobilize temporary camp facilities, power generation, drilling equipment, and personnel.